BGFIEND

1. [ ] whose return to Washington is expected on November 4th or 5th, has reported on the recent BGFIEND Rome meeting. Major changes in agent recruitment and training have been agreed upon which will tend to improve security of the project. The executive committee, Military Junta, and Guard Company will not figure in 1952 operations and agent training will not be conducted at the German training site.

2. As a result of [ ] recent conversations with King Zog, the proposed BGFIEND operation utilizing Zog supporters has been postponed until spring of 1952. Zog has appointed two chief agents and has selected four guides for the operation which will stay inside Albania six weeks and will attempt to establish a W/T operator on a permanent basis.

3. [ ] plans to resign from NCFA on November 7th. In that organization she fills an important position which includes responsibility for liaison with the NCFA office in New York and with the small Albanian desk at RFE. [ ] importance to the project can not be underestimated and her departure will produce a void. As yet her successor has not been determined.

4. On October 25th Radio Tirana reported elimination of seven spies parachuted into Albania by the British Intelligence Service. None of the men identified by name were attached to BGFIEND teams.
